The Tasmanian Government has commissioned the Local Government Board to undertake a broad review into the future of local government in Tasmania. The review will look at the fundamentals of the local government system: the role it should play in supporting communities, the services it should be delivering, and the most effective ways of doing so.

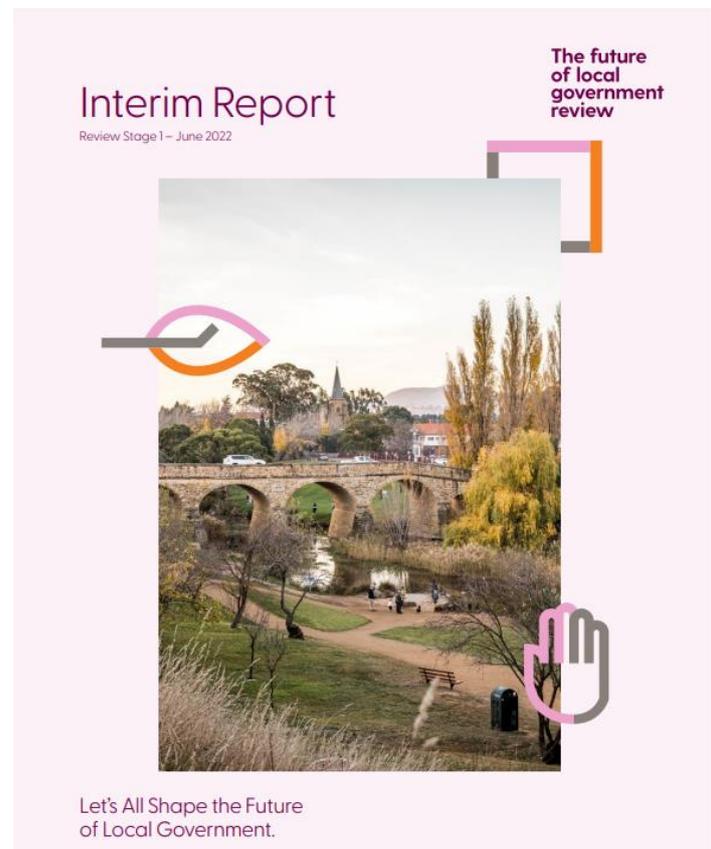

This is the fourth in a series of newsletters which will provide periodic updates on the Local Government Board's Future of Local Government in Tasmania Review. These newsletters will also provide updates and information on key engagement opportunities to ensure you understand how to have your say on local government in Tasmania.

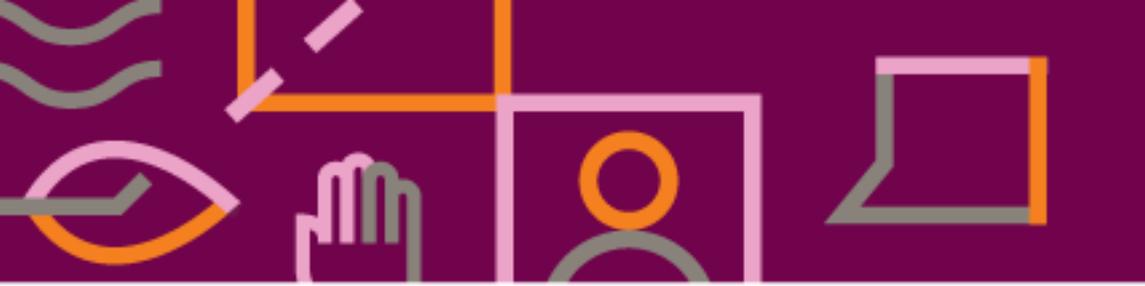

THE STAGE 1 INTERIM REPORT HAS NOW BEEN PUBLISHED

On 29 June 2022, the Local Government Board presented our Stage 1 Interim Report to the Minister for Local Government, the Hon. Nic Street MP.

We are pleased to announce that the Report is now available to the public, and can be viewed on our publications page.

To support the release, we have also developed an interactive online version of the Report, which contains a series of questions to allow you to share your thoughts on the Report and its findings. This will be open to the public for submissions until 25 August 2022.

We have also created a Community Update Brochure, which provides a short, easy to read summary of the key findings of the report.

Again, we wish to thank all contributors who provided advice and feedback during Stage 1 of the Review. Your voices have been important in helping us to create the Report, and set the direction for Stage 2 of the Review.

WHAT'S NEXT

Stage 2 engagement has begun through the release of the Interim Report. We hope to hear the community and sector's response to our findings from Stage 1, including our priority reform areas for local government. If you would like to provide your thoughts, please go to engage.futurelocal.tas.gov.au for more information on how to have your say.

Moving forward, the Board will continue to undertake targeted engagement, research and analysis, exploring the priority reform areas to develop reform options by the end of Stage 2. During this period, there will provide further opportunities to hear from everyone - keep an eye on our website and social media presence to stay up to date.

For more detailed information on the next steps for Stage 2, please see our Stage 1 Interim Report.
