

[REDACTED]

From: David Dow [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, 17 August 2023 8:09 PM
To: Submissions LGBoard
Subject: mergers

Categories: Acknowledged

[REDACTED]

My personal choice would be to obtain decent councils who deal directly with the Commonwealth Government and do away with the State Government who only waste our money and spend time arguing with each other instead of working together for those who voted for them. They have too many rorts and cover everything up. Interesting that as far back as 1984 the premier then was boasting that the Bridgewater bridge was fully funded and was going ahead. Now what happened to all that money?

Regards

David