I live in Eggs And Bacon Bay we have lost so much understanding of the local area's requirements by getting rid of Port Cygnet Council.

Building regulations still refer to it why is it that bigger Council's always want to take control of area's they don't understand?

The Southern Huon Valley and Channel are to far away for representation from Kingborough.

The local idea's that are the lifeblood of the community needs a voice in Southern Eastern Tasmania that is it's own not controlled by people living in city neighbourhood's!!!

Pave our link roads, fix our highways state government in conjunction with local council not Kingborough Council!!!

Tell me one person that lives in Kingston Tasmania that understands everyday conditions in the southern channel beaches, low lying suburbs, hill tops and the great respect that exists and it's like this all over the Huon Valley!!

Give us real representation at local council and make the local government minister add more money to give better insight in those that are wanting to be elected.
