Dear Sir

I find I must condemn and reject the outrageous proposal that would have Devonport swallowing Kentish and Latrobe Council areas. That Devonport is incapable of managing its own affairs is obvious given the debt burden it has inflicted on their residents.

As a resident of Kentish I can speak at first hand of the almost universal approval our Council enjoys and the resource sharing with Latrobe is credit to both entities.

I, for one, will fight tooth and nail to reserve the status quo. Forcing this issue would be a perilous undertaking.
